The meeting was called to order at 9:02 AM.

Chief DeWitt discussed the 2024-2025 fiscal year budgeting process, types of revenues, and different categories of the fund balance and reserve accounts. He also discussed the process of obtaining quotes for medical insurance.

Chief DeWitt explained that, per the bargaining contract, payroll would increase by 3.5% based on the CPI-W released in April.

Chief DeWitt informed the board that the county is conducting a study evaluating impact fees.

Secretary/Treasurer Maturo inquired about getting iPads for the trucks, raincoats with reflective lettering, and liquid IVs on all vehicles. Commissioner Hugo also would like iPads. He recommended 13” air with cellular service. He also stated that if we need larger ones for Prevention since they use them more often, they can get a larger one.

There was no public comment.

The meeting adjourned at 10:04 AM.
